

SYNOPSIS

STORM KEEPER (copy)

Jake Tuner is in a hurry. He's a Philadelphia merger and acquisitions man putting his life together after his ex-wife took him to the cleaners....and his Wall Street career went bust. The money is getting better. He has his airplane and house back, a promising partnership, and he even has an eccentric client with lots of assets, ideas, and assignments...and moreover...plenty of money. It also doesn't hurt him he has a perfect daughter.

Jake soon finds his partnership account suddenly zero...an account that should be flush. Where is the money? Why him? Jake does some digging, and discovers the accountant is borrowing...helping himself. His new partnership has dangerous and troublesome financial problems. Jake realizes life isn't going to get better soon. His firm is in jeopardy, his life style on the brink, and he could lose the only woman he ever really loved,

While Jake fights the ugly idiosyncrasies of greed and violence, a hurricane off the coast of Africa is discovered tracking violently toward the islands of Saint Martin and Ocracoke. Jake will discover his storm and others...